2020 CASE

AMAZON - NETFLIX

The competition is brought to you by the IFSA Network, the Harvard Graduate Business Club and the Harvard College European Business Group.

WELCOME LETTER

Dear Participant,

We would like to thank you for taking part in the Global Case Competition at Harvard 2020.

The competition was created in 2015 in order to give students across the world an opportunity to showcase their skills to industry leaders, network with people of various backgrounds, and ultimately end up one step ahead of the competition.

This is your opportunity to prove your worth to a panel of carefully selected judges, acquire unique industry insight, and share your thoughts and ideas with a broad and impactful audience.

During the competition, we will be able to identify the leaders of tomorrow by reviewing the talents of today.

Henry Ford said that "Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success."

Once you have created a team, you have embarked on a journey we hope you'll remember.

We are honoured to give you the opportunity to present your point of view on a complex financial problem. Starting today, you possess a unique and fun opportunity to demonstrate your passion, creativity, and intelligence.

You will be competing with students from 5 different continents. We hope to see you all this spring in Boston.

We wish you the best of luck,

- The Executive Board

2020 CASE

AMAZON & NETFLIX WINNING THE STREAMING WARS

You are a team of successful bankers working at IFSA Network. Today you have been informed by your Managing Director that Amazon would like to expand its content library in order to win the 'streaming wars'.

Due to its past success, the IFSA Network managed to be the only one on the deal. The problem is that you are not the only team working on the project.

Your challenge will be to find an answer to this question:

Should Amazon acquire Netflix?

The question is broad, but the possibilities boundless. You will need to find the most appropriate answer. You must provide useful insights and you must rigorously support them, and ultimately you must convince the board of directors.

Should Amazon acquire Netflix? Should it acquire it partially? Or, should it find another target?

Beat the internal competition and get your $10,000 bonus!

RECOMMENDED GUIDELINE

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Outline your solution, and your most important arguments, in no more than one slide.

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION

Introduce the reader to the problem by...

- providing a brief history of the case
- analyzing both companies in terms of their history, operations, market position, and strategic direction
- giving an overview of the relevant industry/sector

CHAPTER 2: FINANCIAL DUE DILIGENCE

What would an acquisition mean in financial terms?

- Value 100% of Netflix's equity using the DCF and/or the multiples approach and discuss the implications of your result. Is an acquisition feasible for Amazon? What ROI could they expect?

CHAPTER 3: NON-FINANCIAL DUE DILIGENCE

Is this deal a good idea from a strategic point of view?

Topics of this chapter may include, but are not limited to:

- Synergies, if Netflix can be successfully integrated
- Threats that may prevent a successful integration
- How would Netflix fit in Amazons' portfolio
- Implications for the relevant industry/sector

RECOMMENDED GUIDELINE

CHAPTER 4: CONCLUSION

What should Amazon do and why?

- In this final chapter, you should derive your solution by balancing the pro and counter arguments for the deal. If you come to the conclusion that Amazon should proceed, provide a brief outline of a possible deal and the next steps to follow. If you believe that Amazon should not go for the deal, provide some alternative investment strategies it could undertake to acquire similar capabilities, and renew its brand.

This only serves as a recommendation of procedure. You are not constrained by it in any way, and are encouraged to explore further avenues and thought processes.

Please read the Rules & Regulations carefully.
